QUICK MOVE IS DEMAND ON TURK

Ultimatum Is Presented to Turkish Plenipotentiaries Concerning Balkan Tangle.

London, England, Jan. 27.—The special committee appointed the Balkan plenipotentiaries drafted a note today notifying the Turkish plenipotentiaries that they proposed to break off the peace negotiations. The note was not submitted to the Balkan delegations, which held no meetings today.

The note reminds the Turks that since January 6th the sittings of the peace conference has been suspended without Turkey making any move toward their resumption, while events in Constantinople are the best proofs that Turkey's answer to the demands of the allies will be negative.

On this account, unless the Turks have fresh proposals to make, the allies see no alternative but definitely breaking off the negotiations.

MOOSER ON ELECTION BOARD

Joseph A. Wright and Oscar Buder, Latter Standpatter, St. Louis Choice

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 27.—After the official announcement this morning by Gov. Major that he would recognize the Republican and the Progressive parties by appointing one member of each to the Election Board in St. Louis, and naming Attorney Oscar Buder as the representative of the standpatters, he tonight announced the selection of Attorney Joseph A. Wright as the Bull Mooser.

Wright is not one of the six offered by the Progressive State Committee.

FRISCO DEPOT AT NICHOLS IS HIT BY TRAIN.

Springfield Jan. 28.—The Frisco depot at Nichols, Junction, was caved in, a freight train was wrecked and a carload of mules released early this morning when passenger train No. 106, the Kansas City-Flo-rida special in charge of Conductor Parker and Engineer McCaulou crashed into a freight train on the crossing in front of the depot. The passenger had just left Springfield for Kansas City and was traveling at a rate of about six miles an hour. It failed to stop at the crossing.

Crashing into the freight train the passenger hurled four cars off the track into the depot wall. The wall gave way and two of the cars were jammed into the station building. A car in which a load of about forty mules, consigned to local shippers, was crowded, was splintered and the animals escaped without injury.

To add to the confusion the stove in the depot waiting room was overturned and the building caught fire. A serious conflagration was prevented by the quick work of Operator Everett Good who extinguished the flames.

WEDDING BELLS.

On January twenty sixth at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. C. Banks occurred the wedding of her daughter, Stella, to Mr. Farlon Neill, of Cassville. Rev. S. M. Smith officiating. The bride was very becomingly attired in a white serge dress trimmed in white satin and wide lace. The groom wore the customary black. Mr. R. Ranking was best man and Miss Florence Edens was bridesmaid.

Only the near relatives and intimate friends were present.

Among many other pretty and useful presents was a complete set of dishes given by the bride's brothers. After the ceremony a bountiful dinner was served. Beautiful carnations were the only flowers used for the table which made it very lovely.

Mr. Neill is a man of sterling character.

Mrs. Neill is a member of New Site church and a noble christian who will be greatly missed in the church and Sunday School, as they expect to leave in a few days for Louisiana, where the groom has a position as superintendent among the oil wells.

They have many friends who join in wishing them God's blessings through life.

THE HENPECK

Bill Bluffem stalks along the street as if he owned the town; and all the folks he deigns to greet get nothing but a frown. He carries such a lofty air, and puts on such a front, it makes each common mortal stare and feel just like a runt. To him, the whole great world is wrong, and only he is right; he struts like Caesar through the throng—a man of lordly might. But when Bill Bluffem reaches home, he sings another tune; he ducks his high and lofty door, and looks as meek as June; he shuffles in with humble mien, as gentle as a lamb, his voice is soft, his look serene—the door he does not slam. You'd scarcely know Bill Bluffem now, so altered are his ways—to see him shrink before his frau would fill you with amaze. The man that blusters like a yep, and struts about the town, is nearly always just the chap that's governed by a gown.

HOME WORK.

"Willie, why couldn't you find the result of these examples you took home?" inquired the teacher in a sharp voice.

"Please, ma'an," replied the shaking boy, "me father says they wuz too hard for him, an' would you mind giving me a few easier ones to do?"

RESIDENCE DYNAMITED AT WHEATON

Residence, Valued at $1,500, Completely Destroyed—Every Inmate More or Less Injured.

Wheaton, Mo., Jan. 27.—The residence of Porter Potts, a prominent citizen of this town, was wrecked by dynamite last night, unknown parties placing the explosive on a porch of the house.

At 11 o'clock last night the whole town was awakened by the explosion of the dynamite, and immediately set forth to discover the source of the noise.

From the condition of the ruins it seems that the explosive in a large quantity was placed on the back porch of the dwelling place and a slow fuse lighted in order to give the dynamiter an opportunity to get away. No lives were lost in the wreck caused by the destructive force, but it was a mere chance that there were not two lives snuffed out.

WINDOWS BROKEN 200 FEET DISTANT.

Mrs. Potts had been ill for some time and last night she had been especially ill. She was slightly injured, and the rest of the family suffered bruises and cuts from the flying timbers. The whole back part of the house was wrecked and windows were smashed in houses for 200 feet in all directions.

The Black brothers' bloodhounds were immediately telephoned for and put on the trail of the dynamiters and by morning they had traced them to within a few miles of Rocky Comfort. Sheriff Bixey of Barry county with a large posse is conducting the search.

Mr. Potts has been active in the enforcement of the liquor laws and many think that his enemies were instrumental in causing the damage. One of the city merchants sold a number of sticks of dynamite to two young men, strangers to him, one day last week.

Mr. Potts' residence was damaged to the amount of $1,500 and neighboring houses will raise the amount to over $2,000.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers.

INCOME TAX

Thirty-four states have ratified the federal constitutional amendment providing for the income tax. Ratification by two more states is all that is necessary for the final adoption of this great reform. There are fourteen states yet to act and there can be no doubt that out of that number there will be two whose legislatures will get into line with the great progressive movement—The Commoner.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy has no superior for coughs and colds. It is pleasant to take. It contains no opium or other narcotic. It always cures. For sale by all dealers.

BUTTERFIELD

We are having some fine winter weather at this writing.

Joe Reed has purchased a stock of goods from Tom Ferguson and will take possession in about thirty days.

Friday morning, January 24, 1913 the death angel entered the London home east of Butterfield and claimed for its victim Mr. Jim London. His death was sudden, he being sick about a week with stomach trouble. He was born in 1854, making him 59 years old at the time of his death. He was converted several years ago and united with the Methodist church at this place in November. He had lived a good Christian life, and said on his death bed, "Don't worry about old Jim, my way is as bright as the noon day sun." The loved ones should not weep for Mr. London is in a land of rest and we should all strive to meet him in a better land where there will be no more sad partings. It seems so hard to give up our loved ones, but God's will be done. He leaves a wife, two brothers and a wide circle of loved ones and friends to mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted at the Mt. Pleasant church Saturday afternoon by Bro. Combs after which the body was conveyed to the cemetery and tenderly laid to rest to await the resurrection morn.
